

Council on Renal Nutrition- Indiana Spring Meeting

Friday, March 1st, 2024 8:30-3:00 EST.

National Kidney Foundation of Indiana Office and Online
Executive North Office Park

911 E. 86th Street, Indianapolis, IN 46236

Program Chair: Laura Marley, RD, LD

Agenda

Time	Topic	Speaker (include affiliation, city, state)
8:30-9:00	Updates from NKF	Molly Majot RDN, LDN, Clinical Dietitian- Kidney and Pancreas Transplant Indiana University Health University Hospital Indianapolis, IN
9:00-10:00	The Role of a Kidney Transplant Dietitian	Amanda Wakim, DNP, FNP-BC Endocrinology Nurse Practitioner West Virginia University Medicine and Wheeling Hospital Centers of Endocrinology-Not for credit
10:15-11:15	Not For Credit- TZield Potential to Delay Stage 3 Type 1 Diabetes	Brandon Kistler PhD, RD, FNKF, FAND Assistant Professor -Purdue University- Department of Nutrition Science West Lafayette, IN
11:30-12:30	Low Protein Diets in pre dialysis CKD: Where do we go from here?	Annabel Biruete PhD, RD, FNFK, FASN, Assistant Professor Purdue University Department of Nutrition Science Adjunct Assistant Professor Division of Nephrology IUSCOM West Lafayette, IN
12:45-1:45	New Research in individuals with CKD or Hispanic/ Latina descent.	Tzu Wen Cross PhD Assistant Professor of Nutrition Science and Director of the Gnotobiotic Animal Facility at Purdue University West Lafayette, IN
2:00-3:00	New Research on the Microbiome and relevance to diet, impact of microbiome on health and disease and current diet interventions to change microbiome and modulate health.	